DEBUT.

We are now celebrating the first anniversary of the founding of the "DIAMOND DUST." This paper was started one year ago by Doc. O'Donnell and Maurice Pauley. It was at first a crude one sheet form but has progressed so much in the last year and the subscription list has swelled to such an extent as to make the present elaborate form possible. It is our intention in editing this paper to further the interest in our national sports and create a spirit of good fellowship among the students.

REP. GAME.

May 1st.—The Varsity crossed bats to-day with the Foresters of Lafayette. The game was fast and furious throughout, but the Varsity lost on errors. Hasser and Grathwohl, the battery for the home team played an excellent game while McGurren and Berghoff pulled off some sensational plays. The game showed plainly that they have the material for a winning team, but what they do need is practice, and above all batting practice. With several chances to score, they stepped to the bat and fanned in a way that would disgust the most optimistic rooter. But with just a little more practice they will make a team that can't be beat by any of our class.

Connors, pitcher for the Foresters, showed up good, and squirmed out of a bad hole in the eighth. He can not, however, come up to either Hasser or Mc Gurren. There was a weak spot on third, but the Varsity failed to take advantage of it.

ROYALS VS. IMPERIALS.

April 27 1910. — At last the "weather man" changed frown into a smile and gave us another sample of a sunny day. The depressed spirits of the boys were soon revived and the old time enthusiasm sprang up in full bloom again. Amidst the whir of balls Willie "Smiles" with his trusty followers, the Imperials and Royals took the field and everything gave promise of a lively contest. A few preliminary tactics "thawed out" the "crimps" and stiffness of the players, and when the umpire's call for play was heard everyone was in his usual form. Backed by a goodly number of enthusiasts, Captain Moeder's veterans took the field, and from the beginning of the game exercised a superiority over their opponents with which the Royals could not cope.

J. Moeder, the swift twirler of the Imperials, was in fine form throughout the game, striking out fifteen men and allowing the Royals only two hits. The Royals managed to reach third several times, but failed in their several attempts to score. All the Imperials except Bremer-kamp had their batting eye and raised continual havoc among the Royals. It was very evident that Bremerkamp was too sure of the ball, and it is the hope of the student body at large that the graceful manner in which he thrice struck out, threatening even to strain his "medulla oblongata," will be an impetus to more action and less talk.

Batteries. Royals: Birkmeier and A. Moeder.

"Imperials: J. Moeder and Himmelgarn.

The Royals have a good team, but they need batting practice. J. Moeder seemed an insolvable riddle to them, but as soon as they learn how to wield the smooth stick, they'll swoop down upon the other three teams like a hurricane.

"LAURELS vs. ROYALS."

April 29th, 1910.—The Royals were the easy victims of the Laurels in a five inning game Friday and although they made several heroic efforts to check the onslaughts of their opponents they met with slight success. Numerous errors lost the game for the Royals and some good fielding practice would strenghten their team considerably. Birkmeier's sensational catch in center and the fast double play from Blottman to Kennedy to Meyers shows that the material isn't "Bushels" in center lacking. seems to be ubiquitous. Keep it up Gus. Somebody has to dig up the sand.

EDITORIALS.

On May 7th our old friends, and at the same time enemies, De Paul U. of Chicago, will cross bats with the Varsity. Last year De Paul had a very strong team and lost to St. Joe by the very close score of 3 to 2. This year many of their old stars are back, Moone, the former St. Ignatius star, Wilhoit, the slugger, and most probably "old man" Barry, the twirler, will be here with his younger boys. With these in the game a close contest is assured, and all should turn out to root for the purple and red. St. Joe has never lost to De Paul and are determined they never shall.

POETS' CORNER.

"DE PAUL U."

By Jack Dwyer. - - -

There stands a college dear,
Not far, far away from here,
And rain or snow
With hearts aglow,
Her teams go forth to play against the foe.

We cheer each doughty lad

And the bleachers they go mad

For in the game the boys do stay

Until they've won the day.

(CHORUS)

When St. Joe goes forth to play
De Paul U.
Dear old De Paul U, pretty De Paul U!
They are always in the game and apt
to maul you
And beat De Paul U,
When e'er they play.

"AMONG THE JUNIORS."

CUBS AND PIRATES.

The Cubs experienced a doleful defeat Wednesday when thetrusty Pirates slaughtered them unmercifully, allowing them to score only four runs, while they had twelve to their credit.

Innings. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R. H. E. Pirates: 2 3 0 0 4 0 3 0 0 12 15 6 Cubs: 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 4 0 4 7 8

Batteries. Pirates: Butler, Beckman. Cubs: Petzold, Fitzgibbons, Beile and Marcotte.

Butler occupying the high mound for the Pirates was in wonderful condition and 'Happy,' although a utility man, picked off two clean hits. 'Bones' Kennedy stationed in right field, while being in a dreamy mood, failed to notice a long drive come out to him. Cheer up, 'Bones,' we can't all be good fielders. Don't be discouraged Cubs. The season has only opened and there will be many opportunities for revenge.

TENNIS.

The Tennis season opens today with great enthusiasm. This manly sport is not only beneficial physically, but mentally as well, and should be indulged in by all.

Nothing has been neglected which might further the progress and enjoyment of this sport. The expenses for this year are not small, for the best material on the market has been secured. To give some idea, here are a few figures:

Junior Rackets $ 5.60
Two Tournament rackets 5.50
Two Slocum rackets 4.80
Tennis Balls 18.75
Ropes and Netting 8.00
Total

With these figures in mind I kindly request all tennis players to use the goods with great care and attention. Show your appreciation for the efforts that have been made.

B. Voors, General Manager of Tennis.

The Board of Appropriation is to be congratulated on their good taste and economy in purchasing the new base ball suits. They realized the fact that it is much cheaper in the long run to buy substantial goods, though prices are higher, than a poorer quality for less money. The cost was as follows:

Cost of Rep. $60.50 Red Suits 54.45 Juniors Suits 30.00

$144.95

LOCALS.

If I could only stop grounders, I would play in the infield. Gust.

Moeder—Say, who up there has someone else's glove?

Thiele getting the 38th degree in the smoking club—You'll have me in the poor house soon if you keep this up.

Minster thinks it will rain in Collegeville on Resurrection Day.

Weber—Henry is a fast runner. Minster—Yes, but he runs too long in one place.

Anyone wishing to trade places in the refectory with Strukampp notify Pete.....
